

Which? Legal check-up terms and conditions

- To use the Which? Legal check-up (check-up) you must be over 18 years of age.
- No payment is required to use the check-up.
- In order to receive a check-up report you will need to complete an online questionnaire which will provide you with a list of legal issues that you can select from. The check-up report will only provide general legal information in relation to the issues that you select and will not be tailored to any specific circumstances or issues that you may have. You should not apply the information contained in the check-up report to specific issues or circumstances you may have and we recommend you consider seeking appropriate advice before taking any course of action in relation to specific issues or circumstances.
- The check-up report will only provide information in relation to the laws of England & Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. The online questionnaire may for some legal issues require you to select a particular legal jurisdiction (i.e. England & Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland) and the check-up report will provide information relevant to the jurisdiction you specify only. Please note we will not be able to provide information in the check-up report in relation to conveyancing in Northern Ireland and probate in Scotland and Northern Ireland.
- The check-up report will provide details of Which? products and services that we think could be of interest or assistance to you.
- The check-up report will be sent to you by email only to the email address you provide when completing the check-up.
- In order for us to provide the check-up service we must process your personal data, (eg your name and email address). When processing your data we will do so in accordance with our privacy policy; www.which.co.uk/privacy-policy/
- If you have any questions about the check-up or require assistance with the check-up please contact us Monday - Friday 8:30am - 6pm on 01992 822 828. Please note that we cannot as part of this support provide any legal advice, guidance or information in relation to any specific legal issues or circumstances you may have.
- Which? Legal is run by Which? Limited, Which? Limited is part of the Consumers' Association - a registered charity.
